Advances - Loans - Bellary taluk - Nalludi village - Agl O 2611/33 and 256/36 - Borrower Jowkina Kalyanappa - arrears Rs. 200/- irrecoverable - To be written off - Proposals - Submitted.

One Jowkina Kalyanappa, of Nalludi in the Bellary taluk was granted a loan of Rs. 100/- in Agl.2611/33 for fodder on the security of S.No. 72 A, Government, Dry, Extent 13.96 acres, Assessment 12-3-0 of Nalludi village which was valued Rs. 200/. He was again granted a loan of Rs. 100/- in Aglo. 255/36 for the same purpose and on the security of the same field. During this time the previous encumbrance was brought to notice and the land was valued Rs. 280/- The borrower died subsequently and the land was registered in the name of his widow Jowkina Veeramma, who is a major. She has no sons and has left Nalludi for good. She is reported to be living in Merukunti in the Gangavathi taluk, Nizam's State. As she fell in arrears of land revenue of Fasli 1340 to 1343, S.No. 72 A was sold in auction thrice on 22-8-1933, 12-12-1933 and 13-12-1934 but fetched no bids. The land was bought in by Government on 13-12-1934 and the sale confirmed by the Revenue Divisional Officer, Bellary in his L.Dis.C. 828 dated 2-4-1935. The land revenue arrears were written off in this office L.Dis.C. 3172/35 dated 29-6-1935. The loan of Rs. 200/- granted in the 2 cases is still outstanding and there is no way to recover it as the widow of the borrower is reported to have no moveable or immoveable property to be proceeded against. The land did not fetch any bids not on account of over valuation at the time of the grant of the loans but as it has fallen waste and not in an improved state. I recommend that the loan of Rs. 200/- due from the borrower may be written off the accounts as irrecoverable.

2/. Valuation of the security :–

At the time of the grant of the 1st loan of Rs. 100/- the security on 18.5.24

land S. No. 72 A (Dry Ac. 13.96)

was valued by the R.I at

Rs. 200/-, the price for which the borrower purchased it.

At the time of grant of the second loan of Rs. 100 on 28.3.27

the land was valued by the

R.I at Rs. 280. As almost three years had gone by since the grant of the first loan, perhaps the land would have undergone some improvement. The Coll.

also Vide that the loan was not over valued. The following irregularity is however observed. The R.I in his report in Form No. 6 on the 2nd applin stated that the borrower had not paid any the instalments on account of the 1st loan. (Possibly if at the second loan was granted and though the second loan was granted almost three years had passed and yet not a single instalment was collection on account of the 1st loan. However as it appears that these cases had already been considered along with many other cases of indiscriminate grant of loans in the district disposed of in Pl. Dis. (Confdl) 1179 of 25.4.29 no further action seems necessary and the amount of Rs. 200/- under principal in the two loans may be ordered to be written off.
